Lt. General V.A. Walters
United States Army

Sir:

25X1

I received through [redacted] your most generous offer regarding the illness of my wife. Despite your many duties, you were (still) able to remember my situation, which only enhances your very kind gesture.

Such an attitude eloquently demonstrates your very human sensibilities and comforts and provides the necessary spiritual strength which helps alleviate this heavy and difficult blow which life and fate have levied upon me.

For this reason, I wish, at the least, to express in these short lines, my very deep and sincere appreciation.

I take advantage of this opportunity to wish you success in the fulfillment of your very important responsibilities and to transmit to you my deepest personal affection.

Attentively,

25X1
